

As the "fourth estate" the media has a vital responsibility in a democracy. Already we have seen a scandalous decline in news coverage caused by the profit driven mergers of the media conglomerates. You shame both this country and the people who died to protect it by allowing the decimation of true free speech to continue. Reconsider: some things are more precious than profits. Treasure this democracy. Free speech can only survive with the sound of numerous voices, not one or two